FIXED! WELL, SAY-

Kid Broad has succumbed to Art. Broadway hears the former hero of the equared circle has been engaged by the World Film Corporation to go to the Peerless studio at Fort Lee and act in a movie melodrama. He is to play the part of a pugilist and, reports say, he will win the heart and hand of the beautiful girl by eaving her from the wiles of the Though he is to be an actor the Kid shouldn't let it go to his head. He was seen yesterday with one of the Harris boys in a candy store getting away with about five gers of strawberry ice cream sods. The next thing we know he'll be joinmg the Lambs Club and wearing a tot watch.

CORBETT IN "HOME AGAIN." The play in which James J. Corett is to start is "Home Again." It a comedy-drama by Thomas Louden, an English actor and playwright. Mr. Louden appeared in The Critic," which was presented at the Princess Theatre last Spring. me Again" will go into rehearsal

POLLY PUT THE KETTLE ON. Frieda Hall, the Chicago librettist ad composer, who is in New York ering her wares for sale, has comted a musical piece called "Polly Put the Kettle On." R. G. Herndon, has "The Lady in Red" at the Grand, Chicago, has become inter-seted in "Polly" and may consider producing it. Mrs. Hall wrote book, lyrics and music, which fact has naturally caused people to refer to her as the Cohan of her sex.

IT'S "MOLLY AND I."

"Molly and I" is the name of the play, with music, in which Aaron Jones of Chicago will star Lina Abarbanell. Louis Hirsch has been commissioned to write the music. He will leave to-day for Wabaningo, Mich., in spite of its name, where he will confer with Frank Adams, author of the book and lyrics. For the commany Mr. Jones will probably engage John Miltern, Georgie Drew Mendum, Andrey Maple and Burrell Barbaretta.

MRS. STONE TO ACT.

irs. Fred Stone, wife of the comirs. Fred Stone, wife of the comirs. and known professionally as me Crater, is to return to the stage is "Chin-Chin" opens again at the be Theatra, Aug. 3. She will have role of the Widow Twankey. Mrs.
is hasn't done any acting for sevyears. She wants to travel with husband and believes the best to do it would be to go along is member of the company.

HEARN WITH WAYBURN.

Med Wayburn has taken over the atract between George Edwardes London and Lew Hearn, the commen. Mr. Hearn will have a role in twayburn's revue, "Town Topics." thur Evans has been engaged as age director and Hilding Anderson musical director of the Wayburn ow.

GOSSIP.

Lorin Baker has been engaged for Pollyanna."

Will Rogers, the cowboy, now with Hands Up," is the daddy of a new oy. Will is now riding herd on three ids down at the Rogers home at

J. O. Foster and William Burt were is the theatrical district yesterday trying to find somebody who could dentify an actor who killed himself is Hoboken a few days ago. They didn't have a picture of the man, but they sketched his face wherever they

A "REEL" JOB. "Yes," said S. Gervaise Siaddin, the sique press agent, to a friend on roadway last night, "I've got a real ob now."

"What are you with," asked his riend, "a picture concern or the Fire beneritment?"

SHE TOOK IT OFF.

Dixie Hines encountered a genuine chock yesterday. An actress called on him in his office at the Knicker-booker Theatre Building relative to engagement. As she sat there by s desk, a picture of loveliness, Dixie servelled at her wealth of rich brown

"Pardon me," he finally said, "but that hair of yours as brown as it Beaching up the girl unfastened me catches, tomsed the hair on his self and said: "Examine it and see yourself."

Modest youth that he is, Dixie

MOTHER BALKS HER. pretty girl appeared at the office larry Askin in the Hippodrome rday and asked for a position in

MARY DOANE'S SUCCESS NEW "SUCCESS MOVIE" OF WHO "MADE GOOD"

Written by BETTY VINCENT ECIMS ON THIS PAGE MONDAY

..

"'S'MATTER, POP?"

POP MAY I RUN OVER AND PLAY BY THAT TREE WITH THE HOLE THROUGH IT

-- NOW THEYRE AMONG THE BIG TREES

DON'T YA GO THERE TREE! UNCLE SI.

By C. M. Payne IT'S A WONDER YA WOULDN'T WARN THACHILD WHEN HE GOES PLAYIN AROUND TREES!

KITTY KEYS-Kitty Has Lost Her Job With Old Grabb, but She Is Going to Work in a Law Office Monday!

BEG YOUR PARDON,

By Thornton Fisher

IF STEAMBOATS WERE BUT I'VE COME TO SELLING AT 104 A PIECE SEE HOW MR. GRABB WE COULDN'T BUY THE IS FIXED FINANCIALLY AND ASK IF-WE'RE BROKE-FLAT-STOPPED-BUSTED-DOWN AND OUT THAT

PERMIT ME TO THANK YOU FOR YOUR CANDOR! WE ARE VERY CAREFUL TO WHOM OUR FIRM EXTENDS CREDIT AND AS MR. GRABB DESIRED TO DO BUSINESS WITH US I AM DOUBLY GRATEFUL TO LEARN THE

WELL, BELIEVE ME GEO. WASHINGTON WOULD HAVE HAD A FAT CHANCE ELEVATOR WITH YOU! HORNTON TISHER ---

FLOOEY AND AXEL-You May Not Know It, but Axel Promised a Young Lady a Boat Ride!

By Vic

*

By Eleanor Schorer

Tom found this a day of feasting and pleasure in Bylowland. The Queen of Hearts was giving a picnic at which her famous tarts were to be enjoyed by all who came to Bylowland. Tom was glad that he had come. Here was a day of fun.

All the circus folk were there. Tom approached Peggy, who treated him icily because last night he had watched the circus from the Queen's box. He ran to her in such haste that he tumbled into and smashed all the Queen of Hearts's tarts.

Anxious to make amends for this, he brought the Princess a dainty dish of ice cream, caught his foot in a twig, tumbled and dumped every bit into her lap. By this time every one was in roars of laughter watching

A NEW EVENING WORLD "SUCCESS MOVIE"

ILLUSTRATED BY FERD G. LONG

So he retired to a high tree. The Princess walked beneath it beside her mother She was saying of Tom that he was too ungraceful to be a knight and the title must be taken away from him.' Tom leaned over to hear befter and-tumble, tumble-down he came out of the tree and-to-morrow.

*

Mapor Ichonere Landed bolt upright in bed, "pleased as Punch" to be done with tumbling over himself playing knight to two peevish, particular girls. Now he'd go and play with the Tomboy girl who lived next door and who tumbled quite as much as he did himself .- Continued he'd give her one when a woman, somewhat out of breath, looked in the door and shouted: "Don't engage her. She's not right in the head." The woman was the girl's mother and she'd been following the girl all over the theatrical district.

QUIZZING RANSOME.

John W. Ransome, who has been a recognized comedian for many years, went to the Wayburn offices to see his friend, Ned Wayburn. The latter wasn't in but his young woman secretary was. She got out her book. "Is it about an engagement?" she asked.
"Yes."

"Name, please!"
"John W. Ransome."
"What line?"
"Comedian."

"Any experience?" Out went Ransome.

FROM THE CHESTNUT TREE.

"Porter, how long does this train stop at Pinkleville?"
"From 2 to 2 to 2.02."
"What do you think you are Porter, the whistie?"

Fred's hand at the helm helped his venture ship to weather the storm, although his aunt more than once advised him to give up the little store. But Fred stuck, and after hard months the store was on a paying basis.

A little later a boy was added to the store's staff just to handle the newspaper route and make deliver-ies of telephone orders, a feature of the business which Fred had purposely encouraged.

When he became of age Fred took over the store in his own name. A couple of years later the store next door, temporarily vacant, was leased and the two stores remodelled to make one. Again Fred dug harder to justify the enlargement.

To- day Fred is proprietor of the largest store of its kind in his section of the city. And all because he wouldn't quit in the tace of discouragements, but had fought every problem until it was mastered.—(The Eng.)